June 3 Seguin City Council Meeting Cancelled

Special Meeting Called for June 5

SEGUIN, Texas – The Seguin City Council meeting scheduled for Tuesday, June 3 has been cancelled. Items pending are still in a working phase and will be presented at the June 17 meeting.

A special-called meeting has been scheduled for noon on Thursday, June 5. It will be held at the Seguin Public Library, located at 707 East College Street. An agenda for the meeting is available through the normal online channel and at City Hall.

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located along Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational, and employment opportunities. Seguin's robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2009, Seguin was proud to be selected by Caterpillar as the site of a major new engine manufacturing facility.
